

Peer-Led Consultation Group

Pleasant Hill, CA

2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month

12:30-1:45(ish)

This group is intended to be an ongoing community of therapists coming together to learn from each other, discuss clients from different perspectives and orientations, and get support from each other in handling counter-transference and difficult client situations. The only requirements are that we show up and treat each other with respect, even if we disagree.
